APPLAUSE

for CJC's Unsung Heroes

"One who is engaged with the needs of the community is likened to one who engages in the words of Torah-both are meritorious and bring blessing."

--Jerusalem Talmud

Ron Berkowitz takes the mitzvah of gemilut chasidim/acts of loving kindness quite seriously. Ron can be counted on to help us with the logistics of life. Whether it is building our old ark, fixing our ark doors, or visiting the sick, Ron is the one to take a task and make it his own. He has visited the sick, provided company and transportation to shut-ins and written letters to people in the hospital. At all times, he has shown his respect and care for others by reaching out, and letting them know they are not alone. His questions and honesty has enriched our adult education programs. But mostly he is the kind soul that we all can count on to be there when we need him.

Frances Kramer is a remarkable young woman whose name will someday be in lights! She is a singer, a writer, a teen choir member, a contributor to the teen classes and CJCS, and has been responsible for bringing CJC's annual Purim spiels together with a clever musical approach. She is interested in cooking and reading and learning for its own sake. And...she is one of the first to volunteer and to say YES. She is a friend to many, and a wonderful gift to all of us. Thanks, Frances!
