for CJC's Unsung Heroes

"One who is engaged with the needs of the community is likened to one who engages in the words of Torah-both are meritorious and bring blessing."

--Jerusalem Talmud

Stuart Berlin's voice has enhanced our community with his commitment to our choir, attendance in our adult education classes and religious services, the Sunday school and the fiduciary responsibilities of running a shul. Throughout his tenor on the board, culminating with the presidency, he has demonstrated his commitment to mahloket/sacred arguing, community building and gemilut chasidim/acts of loving kindness. While president, he skillfully guided us through our dues restructuring, the retirement of Cantor Morrison and the hiring of Cantor Kintisch. Thank you Stuart for all you have and continue to do.

Whether it is composing an original composition for Cantor Morrison or Rabbi Starr, accompanying the choir on the piano, or co-chairing the tikkun olam committee, when Anna Rubin takes on a responsibility she succeeds by sharing her skills, asking for help, and networking with our various community partners. Anna Rubin's quiet presence leaves a footprint wherever she goes. Most recently, her work with our immigration initiative has proven to be invaluable. We appreciate all you do for us, Anna.
