APPLAUSE

for CJC's Unsung Heroes

"One who is engaged with the needs of the community is likened to one who engages in the words of Torah-both are meritorious and bring blessing."

--Jerusalem Talmud

Michele Krupka is a wonderful "go to" person. As a member of the Caring Committee, Michele is often transporting congregants to services, cooking and delivering meals or volunteering to set up for High Holy Days. She is always willing to lend a hand. She and her husband Will are active participants in Chapter 2 programming, as well as attending Adult Ed courses and Men's Club events. We have a beautiful High Holy Day bima cover thanks to Michele's artistic eye. Her pottery display in the OMI Gallery congregational show added beauty to our lobby area. CJC appreciates Michele's willingness to help everyone participate in our communal services and programs.

Every Sunday morning a group of CJC bikers departs from CJCS on a morning bike ride, thanks to David Trossman's vision.

Additionally, the Trossman family excitedly showed up at the start of our High Holy Day services, for years, to neatly unload and stack our prayer books for services. David was also found schlepping for High Holy Days and has volunteered for many "one time" projects, including Sukkah building and break down. David participates in Men's Club events and Adult Ed programming. And in his spare time, David volunteers to read Torah for services. For all of this David, we are grateful!
